How Can I Keep from Singing? with Praise Him! Praise Him!	Tomlin, Redman, & Cash	Fetke, Tom	SATB		2008	ThankYou Music	Choir	No	JH		Comments of the 15 music previewers this year highlighted that there is diversity among affiliating ministries regarding using music related to the "Sovereign Grace" movement (e.g., Getty, Townend, Tomlin, Cook, KINGSWAY, EMI Christian Music Group, etc.). Many arrangements would not fit in an academic venue like KCEA's Festival. Also, from previewers and other sources, we estimate that half of the schools purposely avoid use of all music that is commonly identified with this movement. Other ministries are calculatingly limiting their use to only select titles and then only if the arrangement meets their strict scrutiny. Others.... In the spirit of pages 5-6 and 44 of the rulebook, we will all abstain from the use of said pieces in the Festival venue; and this is reflected in the "No." You may select an approved piece from KCEA's preview list and fax first page that contains copyright info with a preview worksheet to KCEA's office by Friday, Feb. 25.

											piece. However, the consensus of the musicians who have evaluated this piece is that this piece has musical elements that could significantly confuse many young people and adults as to what is appropriate music (similar characteristics of pieces designed to accompany dancing, non-traditional rhythm, strong emphasis on body percussion, suggestive performance directions – “feline, sly”). In the absence of a consensus that a song is safe and appropriate, it should not be presented. You may select a song from the published list of previewed pieces.
